MEDICINAL.

TRYING POSITION

"My position is a trying one" was the joking remark of the model of a fashionable firm. But there is less jest than earnest in the statement. It is trying to be on the feet all day, to be reaching and stooping hour after hour from morning until night. And that is a very meager outline of a business woman's day. With many such women the ordinary strain of labor is intensified and aggravated by a diseased condition of the delicate organs, and they become victims of that terrible headache, or blinding headache, which is so common among business women.

If you are bearing this burden, bear it no longer. For the headache, dizziness, nervousness and weakness which spring from a diseased condition of the womanly organs there is a sure cure in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Half a million women have been perfectly and permanently cured by this wonderful medicine.

"My niece was troubled with female weakness for about four years before I asked for your advice," writes Mr. J. W. McGregor, of 62d St. and Princeton Ave., Chicago, Ill. "You advised her to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which she did faithfully for nine months, and now we must acknowledge to you that she is a well woman."

Sick women can consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Address, Buffalo, N. Y.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. "I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have taken two bottles and get more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have in twenty years."—Andrew Briggs of Sunny Lane, Tex. ## WIFE LOVE-MAD FOR HER NEPHEW.

Mrs. Frank Hall, 37 years old, who lives with her husband and three children, at West Hoboken, makes no secret of the fact that she is in love with her 25-year-old nephew, Joseph Berger, of Union Hill, who is the son of her husband's sister.

Berger was a frequent visitor at his aunt's house until a few weeks ago. Mrs. Hall learned that he was paying attention to a servant girl in the home of Mayor Schimm of Union Hill. On Monday Mrs. Hall called on the girl and told her she would have to give up the young man. The affair reached the ears of Hall and Berger's parents, and the latter called on R. Corder Hessel for advice. He told them to reason with Mrs. Hall. Her husband tried this, but her only answer was "I don't love you any more. Joe has my love."

When seen yesterday by a Sun reporter Mr. Hall said: "I love Joe Berger. He belongs to me and I to him. I will not have him leave me for any servant girl. He has my whole heart and my husband has none of it." She said she was going to leave her husband and if Berger did not return to her, she would kill herself. When asked if she would kill Berger loved her she said: "He said he did, but you have to take a man's word on that subject. He has kissed me so often that if each kiss represented a dollar he and I could take a trip to Germany very comfortably."

Hall is a sober, steady man. He said yesterday that he thought his wife was not in her right mind. Young Berger said he would have nothing more to do with his aunt. Hall intends to wait and see whether his wife will not get over her infatuation. —[N. Y. Sun.]

PAPER COFFINS.—There is no man with soul so dead who has not sometimes turned a thought to his future. When the pomp and circumstance of his existence have ended he wants to know that he will go to the last rest with some befitting dignity. Kipling, who once visited an American undertaker's shop, cried out against the fraudulent clothes which the trade puts upon its victims and which only cover them in exposed places. A broadcloth coat without a back, paper collars and paper shirts with dicky fronts raise a feeling of resentment in every self-respecting man. Such tailoring makes a man really dread what Shakespeare called his "taking off."

The latest assault on a man's native and inalienable rights at his own funeral comes in the shape of a paper coffin. Now, we would not say right off that a paper coffin is as great a broadcloth coat without a back, a paper collar and paper shirt, but the idea savors of cheapness. There is no luxury in a paper coffin. Indeed, the inventor, a Brooklyn doctor, who was visited with the idea while rustling in the Adirondacks, boldly says that it is 50 per cent. cheaper than any other coffin—which condemns it to the spot and forces him to add that it is 50 per cent. better than other coffins. It is very doubtful, we think, whether the free citizens of America will look with favor upon this shoddy product of the undertaker's art. Man will not be skimped on the last day, and whether he is to be put under ground or is to be reduced to ash at the crematory he will want any contact with paper mummies. He will not be trifled with at a time like that, especially when the bill must be paid out of his own estate. —[Philadelphia Record.]

A Testimonial From Old England.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

WE GIVE NO REWARDS. An offer of this kind is the meanness of deception. To the curative powers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, Hay Fever and Cold in the Head and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. It soothes and heals the membrane. Price 50 cents at drug stores or by mail. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren Street, New York.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day by taking Cascarets, pills, bitters, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy." Mr. T. K. Rogers, Manchester, Pa.
